

Reading Corps Job Description

Open positions include: Park Avenue site: 4 year old PM class tutor,
Tutor at Windom and 1 tutor at Hiawatha

These positions offer the opportunity to work at one of our Joyce Preschool sites. It's a great way to gain experience in a multicultural learning environment, connect with preschoolers in a meaningful way, preparing children for kindergarten. Joyce Preschool is a warm and nurturing environment that cultivates learning in our dual immersion programs. Tutors work with experienced staff that can be a role model, mentor, and offer guidance and support. Grow your personal and professional networks. It's a great way to give back to your community. If you enjoy working with young children and want to make a difference, being a preschool tutor would be a great fit for you.

Tutors work individually with children and in small groups, tutors also do transitions that are for the entire classroom.

These positions offer a flexible schedule (20-25 hours a week) during the school year calendar, as well as fulfilling hours by volunteering in the community for organizations that are of interest and the tutor feels are important. You'll build skills such as professionalism and communication, and will gain invaluable experience working with young children. In addition, there's an education award to pay tuition or repay student loans, also a living expenses stipend, you'll receive a check every two weeks.
