About Joyce and Comunidad de Colores

Joyce Preschool, located in South Minneapolis, is a dual-language, Spanish-English immersion preschool dedicated to closing the opportunity gap through quality, culturally diverse, kindergarten preparation for students and their families. With more than 50% of students attending receiving scholarships to attend Joyce, "Comunidad de Colores" is aimed at two goals: providing a meaningful opportunity for families to experience activities that promote healthy coping through community art, nature, and fun after the tumultuous events of the past 2 years, and raising funds to support scholarships for our young learners. You can give opportunities to the youth of our community with your sponsorship.
